ARTISTS RESOURCE BANK

2002 Competition

Application Materials

APPLICATIONS MUST BE RECEIVED BY JUNE 20, 2002

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

Artists residing in Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Wyoming, Montana, Alaska, and British Columbia are eligible for the Artists Resource Bank competition. It is open to artists working in all media and genres. Undergraduate and graduate students currently enrolled in an ongoing course of study in visual arts are ineligible.

SUBMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Artists may submit for one or both categories:

Existing Works Purchases

Slides representing work currently available for direct purchase. Purchase prices must include the cost of (as applicable) framing, security mounting hardware, shipping or delivery, insurance and Washington State sales/use tax (8.8%).

- ☐ Plastic slide sheet labeled "P" (denoting artwork available for purchase) containing 10 slides labeled as shown and numbered according to the slide annotation sheet
- ☐ Slide annotation sheet corresponding to the enclosed slides
- ☐ Current résumé
- ☐ Stamped, self-addressed envelope for return of materials

Commissions of New Work

Commissions of New Work - slides of prior commissions or other work indicating an approach to the commissioning of new work. Prices should be a total of artwork budget items.

- ☐ Plastic slide sheet labeled "C" (denoting commission examples) containing 10 slides labeled as shown and numbered according to the slide annotation sheet
- ☐ Duplicates of the 4 slides you feel best represent your work (for a total of 14 slides), labeled A, B, C, or D.
- ☐ Slide annotation sheet corresponding to the enclosed slides
- ☐ Current résumé
- ☐ Stamped, self-addressed envelope for return of materials

If your work is represented better through video than slides:

Submit ONE VHS ½-inch videotape, cued to a selected three-minute segment, labeled on the box with the artist's name. Do not submit one-of-a-kind originals.
